New Marshalls in town

Covid-19 regulations require churches to have nominated and identifiable "Covid Marshalls" to "ensure compliance with regulations". Ann (both), Brenton (9.30), Cynthia (both), Nish (9.30), Sara (9.30) and Julia (both) have done on-line training. Certificates are displayed in the porch. We need more people to train, especially for the

8.00am service. It takes about 20 minutes to do the training. Please speak to me if you are willing. – Julia

SWOT Analysis

At the consultation with Dr Don Owers, the Diocesan Ministry Development Officer, he suggested that the parish reflect on its Strengths, Weaknesses Opportunities and Threats (SWOT). Parish Minutes

Secretary Mano De Mel is organising this and writes: "Parish Council invites members to contribute to this exercise in one of these ways:

1. Participate via Skype during the PC meeting on Tuesday 8 September at 7.30pm from your own home or join a PC member of your choice. Contact me to organise your Skype connection.
2. Write your ideas on the SWOT templates at the Church entrance on Sunday 30 August or Sunday 6 September.

Email your ideas to Julia or me before Monday 7 September using the templates sent with this Parish News."

Please reach me on email or phone with any queries. – Mano 0444 571 643, demel.mano@gmail.com

Australian Anglican Calendar 2021

Orders of this beautiful calendar have opened. Prices vary depending on the number ordered with the single unit price at $13.00 plus $3.30 postage.

Information is at the back of the church, or online: <https://www.aachurchcalendar.com/>

St Peter's College Chapel windows

All Souls is not the only sacred space to have beautiful leadlight windows. If you are interested in a talk about the windows in St Peter's College Chapel, please speak to Richard Begg or Julia who are organising a visit. - Julia

Sunday Midday Market

25 October 12-4pm

A team led by Sue and Ann has begun in earnest to plan the long-awaited "garage sale" of fund- and fun-raising. Sign-up sheets to help with different stalls and tasks are at the back of the church - please volunteer. We also seek quality pre-loved goods to sell: Household items, small furniture, bric-à-brac, books and plants, but no clothing. Contributions can be left in Kay Hall. Speak to Sue, Ann or Julia.

Celebration Sunday

“In the midst of death there is life”

Celebrating our “new normal”

At last Sunday’s combined service we had time for silence and sharing. We mourned our old life and the losses the virus caused/s. We made a floral cross to celebrate that God is with us and life goes on. We read poetry and listened to music – just two of the pleasures not “cancelled by Covid”. – Julia
