Sunday Midday Market Report

The planning committee has met regularly, and things are falling into place. People in charge of stalls are:

Outdoor sales: Ali and Steve Brookman

Books and plants: Peter Nutter, Julie Almond Sausage Sizzle: Pauline Parfitt

Tea and coffee: Tiffany Young, Dawn Goonasekera

Bric-à-brac and children's items: Mano De Mel; many parishioners are also helping on stalls. Payment will be by cash and credit card with a new parish facility that Ann Peisley will operate.

How can you help?

Pray: For all those involved and good weather on the day!

Be there: Come and find a bargain, help on a stall or sit in the church so that we can open it for visitors to enjoy the beauty and peace.

Spread the word: Tell your friends and family and hand out promotional flyers.

Cash donations: If you are unable to help but want to support the fund-raising effort, cash donations can pay for food supplies. Please give donations to Julia or Sue, place an envelope marked "Market" in the collection or make an EFT deposit marked "Market".

Baking: Make small cakes and biscuits to sell with tea and coffee.

"Eskys": Cold drinks will be sold with the Snags, so if you have an esky that we can borrow for the day, please tell Sue.

Sound system: If you have a portable sound system that we can borrow, we would love to hear from you!

Music: If you know of anyone who would like to busk, we also want to hear from you!

Thank you all for your support

Stewardship and parish giving, October 11th and 18th

We will welcome Viv (11th) and the Rev'd Martin Bleby (18th) to talk about e.g. What does it mean to live generously? Why do we give to the church? What are the teachings about this? Viv and Martin have wide-ranging ministry experience in the Anglican Church over many years. This includes Viv's working for the Diocese and Bush Church Aid and Martin's serving in Coober Pedy, Kapunda and Adelaide.
