Notes from Parish Council (PC)

- The Church gutters have been cleaned – thank you Pauline
- Minutes of the Special Vestry Meeting were approved and are available for consultation in the folder at the back of the church. A recording of the meeting will be retained as a full record.
- As a follow-up to the Strategic Planning meeting, the Business Consultant Helen Smith is working closely with Sue Crees to assist in making contact with “historical parish families” and significant stakeholders to invite them to the window viewing and talk, accompanied by refreshments on 17 October along with NPSP Council and other civic and church leaders.

- Volunteers are required to provide eats and help host the combined Anglican Parishes' Window visit and tea on 9 October. Contact Warden Emma co-ordinating catering.
- A plan is posted at the back of the church of where the root barrier and moisture control border will be installed. The architects managing the project advise that heavy machinery will impact the gardens to a distance of approximately 1,5m from the barrier. Parish Councillor Ted Davies and John Byron will jointly investigate this matter and how to manage it.
- Archivist Malcolm Thompson is currently working on locating, systematising and preserving Minutes of previous Vestry and Special Vestry Meetings as far as possible.
- Warden Emma has established links with the organ teacher at St Peter's College to re-establish contact and develop a plan to involve organ scholars in the parish
- The parish is currently "living beyond its means" spending more than its monthly income, so PC encourages members and associates to become regular dedicated givers and to consider giving or giving more generously to the parish. Dedicated Giving pledge forms are at the back of the church.
- PC accepted a quotation to renovate Kay Hall in order to render it usable and rentable as an income-generating community space and allocated $20 000 for this project. If you have comments or queries about this, please contact a member of PC.

Minutes of all PC meetings and financial reports are in the folder at the back of the church for the purposes of transparency and accountability
