Notes from Parish Council 15 February

- Blinds will be added on the upper central windows in Coles Hall organised and donated by Lorraine Gormly, recent OAM – thank you
- Sue is overseeing planned upgrading of the church electrical supply – thank you Sue
- Maintenance to a downpipe, columns, light fittings and the kitchen tap will be done at the Rectory which also has a new watering system
- Compostable paper cups were trialled for Communion wine at a Wednesday service but were judged too flimsy to be “fit for purpose”
- The church piano was tuned and Kay Hall’s will be – thank you Sue
- All Souls will be a SALA 2022 venue so we seek artists to exhibit – speak to Sue, Emma or Fiona if you know an artist who might take part
- A signwriter is updating the plaque of Rectors – thank you Colin
- Pauline will organise a gardening work team to mulch, prune and tidy the garden – thank you Pauline

Richard writes: “Thank you very much indeed to all my friends at All Souls for the send-off. The lovely card and the two practical presents. I shall put the presents to good use and each time I use them I shall remember my happy times at All Souls with you.”

Farewell to Richard Begg, now living in North Adelaide

What discipline will you take on for Lent? Ideas: Forego chocolate or coffee and give the money to ABM or the Anglicare Magdalene Centre? Join the Lent Study group? Read a book? Do a daily on-line meditation? Volunteer 2 hours a week to help someone?
