Notes from Parish Council 15/3/22

- The quarterly parish donation will go to flood relief
- A generous donation of $5 000 from Didy McLaurin and Joan Lyons combined with other funds in the National Trust will be used to install split systems in Coles Hall for the benefit of people using the space – thank you Didy and Joan
- To accommodate display boards for the SALA exhibition and allow access for carpet moth treatment, 9 pews will be moved from the walls and back of the church into the shed
- Trees overhanging Coles Hall roof have been removed by the neighbouring property owner – thank you Sue for organising this
- The “windows booklets” have been reprinted – thank you Sue
- Thank you to Angela Jones, pro bono PC Minute taker stepping down for health reasons, but continuing till a replacement is found, see the photograph that follows:

Angela with flowers from the Parish to thank her for her service to Parish Council
