Archbishop away June 6 – September 12

During Archbishop Geoff's absence on leave, at the Lambeth Conference and at the World Council of Churches' General Assembly, his Executive Assistant, Janette, is reading Archbishop emails, and David Bassett reading Primate emails for action or referral. Bishop Tim is acting Administrator, and David Bassett while +Tim is at Lambeth.

Thank you for the card, flowers and cake marking three years of my appointment to this parish, a lovely surprise – Julia

News from Parish Council 19/7/22

- The Diocesan Property Officer brought a contractor to inspect the church. He will prepare a scope of “make-safe” works to remove plaster from the side chapels, chancel and apse areas that the safety report identified as requiring removal.
- Arrangements for SALA are in hand, including an opening function on Saturday 13 August and an advertising feather to position outside
- Parts of the porch are being refurbished for SALA – thank you to Fiona H and Ted D
- PC is working on a promotional feather to welcome people to church services.
- Speakers are being arranged for a sermon series in Advent on Hot topics in church and society
- PC agreed to donate the parish's quarterly giving to the Sunday Mail Blanket Appeal

- Speak to Julia if you would like to visit the Association of Ukrainians in South Australia to find out if and how we could help; the Association helps arriving Ukrainian refugees
- Recent donations to the National Trust appeal totalled $27 000. Donors receive a personal letter of thanks from the Rector
