Now for something completely different

Have you wanted to invite someone to church but felt uncertain about the suitability of traditional services? Here's something completely different. Invite friends and family at 9.30am on 22nd January for:

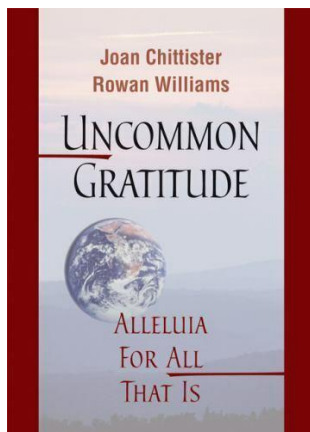

Tea and Table Talk

The game designers – a UK Christian not-for-profit – desire to transform lives through the power of conversation. The game “aims to provide a fun way in which people can begin to have conversations about the important questions in life.” Download the app to your phone from:
