News from Parish Council, 18 July 2023

- The electrical system to Coles Hall has been upgraded at a cost of $2 486. Thank you Pauline for organising this.
- The church drainage has been upgraded and some paving is being repaired. Thanks to the Parish Endowment Trust for finance and Pauline for oversight.
- A letter from the Wardens of All Souls and St Theodore's, Toorak Gardens to Diocesan Council (DC) was accepted at a meeting of DC on 12/7/23. It communicated that the two parishes would like to pursue discussions about a partnership of some kind, still to be worked out. All Souls also indicated its distress with diocesan plans to amalgamate our parish with St Aidan's Payneham and St Andrew's Walkerville and our disinclination to participate.
- Plans for the 140th celebration at the Patronal Festival are beginning. Bishop Denise will visit. Speak to Emma to help with organising celebrations.
- Plans for Advent 2023 are in hand. The theme will be God and me: Telling our stories. Speak to Julia for more information or to participate.
- The fridge in Coles Hall will be switched off to save on power costs and turned on when required.
- Warm thanks to everyone who has contributed a blanket to keep worshippers warm in church. They are much appreciated and used.
- The Archivist is purchasing and installing a set of shelves in the belfry to test whether they are suitable. More will be purchased if this proves successful. Thank you, Malcolm.
- Next Parish Council meeting: 22nd August, not the usual third Tuesday.
