We acknowledge the Kaurna people, their Elders and their spiritual relationship with Country.

Elizabeth, the much-loved sister of David, our dear Priest, passed away on Saturday 28th June in Perth WA. Our love, thoughts and prayers are with David, Deborah and all the family, at this time of much sadness.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them

LOVE CHANGES EVERYTHING

A love song like no other came from those English lips under Barossa stars thus Michael Crawford crooned
The captivated crowd of groupies in orgasmic rapture sipped wine with poignant goose-bumps as they swooned

A romantic night it was with so much reminiscing
He went back to those Some Mothers Do Have Them days which seemed a million light years away from Phantom but that's Show Biz, a talented man and versatile ways

It's also learning, whatever you do, to go with the flow
Don't be so damned regimented about the life you lead
A still small voice inside you is much more in the know than you would dare to believe in your wildest dreams

Life's unfolding rhythms may not always seem to rhyme
Things that really matter are in the province of Love
Live extravagantly, seize the day, the week, the year
Handle dear ones with care and thank the Lord above

Food Collection

CONGRATULATIONS to Emma and the team.

It was a cold day; but it didn't stop the caring community donating to our food collection. Many people look out for our flyers and commented how they like to help in this way, as we're asking for goods not money; the donations continue to exceed expectations. A member of the community wants to help us at the church next year. Many people wandered around the church after depositing their goods, and there were several mini windows tours.

Thank you, Sue.
