LONGSTANDING AND NEW

Christmas at All Souls

Christmas Eve and the Christmas Day services were well attended. The congregation at the Christmas Eve service enjoyed singing carols accompanied by our Brass Ensemble. They also learned a new song, “Beaudy God”, thanks to our multi-talented Locum Father David. The wonderfully Aussie chorus is worth sharing with everyone:

*“Beaudy God, thank you for all you have done
You’ve made this life worth living, you’ve given us your Son.
Beaudy God, Ripper! You’ve shown us the way,
To live our lives more fully with you every day.
Beaudy God!”*

We acknowledge the Kaurna people, their Elders and their spiritual relationship with Country

- Subsequent February services will be conducted by Father Piers Davey.

THE LAND OF THE LONG WEEKEND (can be sung)

Australians all let us rejoice, another long weekend
 Three days of rest, that work's a pest, a fun-filled time we'll spend
 We'll hang out with the social crowd and have a real good time
 With steak and snags, rissoles and prawns washed down with Ozzie wine
 In joyful tones we all admit, we love our Ozzie wine

We'll find a beaut spot in the park; the folding chair's a must
 With not much rain for donkey's years the picnic ground's all dust
 The cricket bat and tennis ball are waiting in the boot
 The sulo bin's been pinched for stumps, nobody gives a hoot
 On such a day we have to say, nobody gives a hoot

This wide brown land sure makes us proud; we've really come of age
 Pavlova, thongs and vegemite are on the big world stage
 The emu's on our coat of arms and so's the kangaroo
 Dame Edna hands her gladdies out to all good possums true
 On this weekend then let us sing, we're all good possums true!
