Coming and Going (at All Souls')

The priest, she was leaving so, then what was cooking?
    the juices were flowing
Who was in the knowing?
    The plot was thickening
    An idea in the making conspirators creating a Lazarus awakening

What then could be stopping the horse from its bolting
    the ducks from aligning the bishop from signing
two people from groaning:
    It's crazy, mind-blowing you have to be kidding - to bow to your bidding?

This small flock is growing with God's love it's flowing Just trust God's bestowing for God's in the knowing So, thanks for your calling we've sure done some hauling a graced home for dwelling and now, fond farewelling

This module introduces participants to the main characteristics of Anglicanism through the lens of worship and spirituality, church life, and mission. Participants will examine the ways in which various strands of the tradition have developed historically, and what it means to be Anglican in Australia today.

On completion of this module, participants will be able to:

- Identify key characteristics of Anglicanism
- Outline the historical roots of different traditions within Anglicanism
- Demonstrate how Anglican understandings of mission relate to ministry in a parish, school or chaplaincy context
- Express their own identity and vocation as Australian Anglicans
